

TERMS CS&D Programme SEMINAR SERIES

Cancer,
Stem cells & Developmental biology

Whom to invite?

First-class scientists and speakers only.

Procedure of invitation

Contact the co-chairs of the seminar committee, Puck Knipscheer and Mike Boxem with suggestions for speakers. Indicate for each the topic and model system used, as well as a brief motivation for your interest. The seminar committee will select the speakers to be invited, thereby aiming to achieve a constantly high quality of science and presentations and a good coverage of important and relevant topics. If your proposal is accepted, you can invite the speaker on behalf of the CS&D Programme. A standard letter of invitation can be downloaded from the website: <http://www.csnd.nl/forms/> Please check the seminar calendar on the homepage www.csnd.nl for available dates. You may reserve one or two dates by sending a mail to the secretariat (<mailto:csnd-phd@umcutrecht.nl>).

Host

When you suggest and invite a speaker you must also act as his/her host. Both project leaders and PhD students are welcome to suggest and host speakers. In particular PhD students are encouraged to contribute: hosting a speaker is an inspiring experience and many big names more readily accept invitations coming from PhD students. Seminars may be combined with a journal club on the speaker's papers before the seminar and a discussion with the speaker afterwards. Student-invited seminars would be particularly attractive for this approach.

Information

At the time of invitation the host will provide the secretariat with the name, affiliation and email address of the speaker. A title should be provided at least 2 months prior to the seminar, a short abstract must be provided at least 1 month prior to the seminar.

Time and place

Thursday at 4 p.m. in the Ted Peek Auditorium of the Hubrecht Institute, Uppsalalaan 8 unless other indicated

Duration

45 minutes, followed by questions and discussion.

Travel

The CS&D Programme will reimburse economy class airfare ONLY, no sustenance costs will be refund.

For travel to/from the airport, train is the preferred mode of transportation.

Parking costs will not be reimbursed.

Accommodation

For speakers from abroad, a hotel room can be reserved for a maximum of two nights. The host is responsible for booking the hotel, preferably the Malie Hotel. When making the reservation, indicate that is for the CS&D and ask that the bill be sent directly to the school's secretariat. The following hotels have agreed to this procedure:

- Malie Hotel, Maliestraat 2, tel 030- 2316424 (your first choice) info@Maliehotel.nl
- NH Centre Utrecht, Janskerkhof 10, tel 030-2313169 nhcentreutrecht@nh-hotels.com

Drinks and dinner

Following the seminar, the host may take the speaker out for drinks and dinner and invite maximum 2-3 people from his/her lab.

Allowable costs

Please note that only those speakers who present a seminar in the context of the Thursday seminar series are eligible to receive a fee. Speakers presenting a seminar in the context of a CS&D course will not receive a fee, with the exception of speakers that have been approved by the (co-) chair(s) of the Seminar Committee and present their seminar on a Thursday, with the seminar being open to the entire CS&D community.

The CS&D will pay hotel/breakfast for 2 nights maximum at a maximum cost of € 130 per night.

Additional nights must be paid by the host or the speaker.

The host will be reimbursed dinner with the speaker (€ 250,- max for 4-5 people)

The speaker will be reimbursed his/her own travel costs (economy class airfare only with a maximum of 2000 euro); all other expenses are at the cost of the speaker.

The total cost of a seminar will depend on the country of residence of the speaker, but is about € 1000,- on average.
